ICAP's 27th annual global Charity Day raises £4.6million

Gareth Southgate, David Walliams and Bradley Cooper joined ICAP to raise money for over 100 charities across the globe

London, 11 December, 2019: ICAP, part of TP ICAP group, the world's largest interdealer broker, is pleased to announce that it raised £4.6 million on its 27th annual global Charity Day, held yesterday.

A host of stars, including England football manager Gareth Southgate, TV personality David Walliams, model Jodie Kidd and actress Anna Friel, attended ICAP Charity Day in London on Tuesday; while celebrity guests including actor Bradley Cooper joined employees to raise money in New York yesterday. The global event took place across ICAP's 27 global offices, with 100% of ICAP's revenues and brokers' commissions donated directly to charitable causes.

Nicolas Breteau, Group Chief Executive Officer, TP ICAP, said:

"I am delighted that this year's ICAP Charity Day raised £4.6 million, bringing the total amount raised to approximately £150 million since the first Charity Day in 1993. The fantastic amount raised by our 27th annual Charity Day will make a significant difference to many great causes and initiatives around the world.

I would like to thank our customers, employees, suppliers and our celebrity guests for their dedication and goodwill on behalf of ICAP Charity Day."

26 UK charitable organisations benefited from ICAP Charity Day this year. A full list of the charities ICAP supported this year, as well as more information about how ICAP's donations will make a difference, can be found at www.icapcharityday.com.

Background Information on Charity Day

ICAP Charity Day was founded in 1993 to grow its charitable giving programme through an innovative fundraising initiative that would make a significant difference to charities. Made possible through its unique position in the financial markets, the Company and its brokers committed to donating all revenues and commissions on one day a year to a select group of charities around the world to guarantee that they would receive a sizeable contribution to fund much needed projects and initiatives. Now in its 27th year, ICAP, its customers and partners have collectively raised approximately £150 million to date and supported more than 2,400 projects worldwide. www.icapcharityday.com.
