

TP ICAP appoints Joanna Nader as Global Head of Strategy

October 16 2019

TP ICAP, the world's largest interdealer broker, announces that it has appointed Joanna Nader as Global Head of Strategy.

Joanna was previously Managing Director, RBC Capital Markets, where she was Head of Diversified/Specialty Financials Research, covering a number of financial companies, including TP ICAP. Before joining RBC Capital Markets, Joanna spent nearly 10 years as the Chief Investment Officer of JRJ Group, a private equity firm focused on financial services. Joanna also worked at Lehman Brothers where she was the lead analyst covering Speciality Financials and European Investment banks, before becoming Chief of Staff, Office of CEO Europe, Middle East & Africa.

Nicolas Breteau, Chief Executive of TP ICAP, said: "I am very pleased Joanna has agreed to join TP ICAP. She is a hugely experienced and highly respected financial services professional and joins us at an important time as we design our new strategy for 2020 onwards."

Joanna Nader said: "I am delighted to be joining TP ICAP. TP ICAP sits in the heart of the world's financial, energy and commodities markets and I am very excited about the opportunities for growth that I believe the company has."
