

ICAP's 27th annual global Charity Day raises $6 million

New York, December 11 2019 – ICAP, part of TP ICAP group, the world's largest interdealer broker, is pleased to announce that it raised $6 million on its 27th annual global Charity Day, held yesterday.

A host of celebrities, including Oscar-nominated actor, Bradley Cooper, sports stars Alex Rodriguez and Adam Graves, alongside model Lily Aldridge and actor David Costabile, attended ICAP Charity Day in New York on Tuesday to raise money for many charitable causes. The event took place across ICAP's 27 global offices, with 100% of ICAP's revenues and brokers' commissions donated directly to charitable causes.

Nicolas Breteau, Group Chief Executive Officer, TP ICAP, said:

"I am delighted that this year's ICAP Charity Day raised $6 million, bringing the total amount raised to approximately $190 million since the first Charity Day in 1993. The fantastic amount raised by our 27th annual Charity Day will make a significant difference to many great causes and initiatives around the world.

I would like to thank our customers, employees, suppliers and our celebrity guests for their dedication and goodwill on behalf of ICAP Charity Day."

Over 45 US charitable organizations benefited from ICAP Charity Day this year. To learn more visit www.icapcharityday.com.

Background information on Charity Day

ICAP Charity Day was founded in 1993 to grow its charitable giving programme through an innovative fundraising initiative that would make a significant difference to charities. Made possible through its unique position in the financial markets, the Company and its brokers committed to donating all revenues and commissions on one day a year, to a select group of charities around the world to guarantee that they would receive a sizeable contribution to fund much needed projects and initiatives. Now in its 27th year, ICAP, its customers and partners have collectively raised approximately $190 million to date and supported more than 2,400 projects worldwide. www.icapcharityday.com.
