

TP ICAP appoints new Chief Commercial Officer, Credit EMEA

London, 12 March, 2019: TP ICAP, the world's largest interdealer broker, is pleased to announce that Mark Russell will be joining TP ICAP as Chief Commercial Officer, Credit EMEA, reporting to Frits Vogels, CEO EMEA.

Mark will join TP ICAP in the summer and brings a wealth of experience in helping businesses to grow and explore new opportunities and market structures. He will be responsible for evolving trading protocols and workflows to meet clients' demands and offer innovative solutions in a challenging regulatory environment.

In his most recent role as Head of Credit at Tradeweb in Europe, Mark was responsible for the launch of its European matched principal trading business and led the adoption of a new model to meet market changes. Prior to that he spent 19 years at UBS where he ran the electronic bond trading platform Bond Port, overseeing the build-out of the bond execution business and its role within the banking group.

Frits Vogels, CEO EMEA said: "We are pleased to welcome Mark to the team. He has vast experience in market change and we are confident that he will play a major role in identifying new opportunities and building out our existing propositions."
